Mobility of Youth workers

Expressions in Dialogue aims to develop inclusion practices and youth work competences through human rights education and Living Library methodologies supporting more inclusive communities in Europe.

The expected outcomes are to support the inclusion of young people of diverse cultural backgrounds strengthening the sense of belonging, mainstreaming intercultural dialogue and de-constructing prejudices through the implementation of Living Library actions.

Methodological Approach

The course is conceived in ways that require active participation and exchange between participants. The methodological approach is grounded on participants' experiences and builds on concrete actions for the future.

The methodology of the training is based on the main principles of experiential learning cycle and human rights education. The programme includes the direct practice and evaluation of an intercultural Living Library action in the local community.

It is expected that the impact of the course will be translated by the participant in the use of these methodologies at local and regional level, as well as in the creation of synergies and the increase of cooperation among youth work organisations in the European level.

Participants will be supported along the course to produce their Youthpass.

Participant's profile

The project is designed for 26 youth workers of all ages who wish to develop competences to implement Living Library actions in their communities and develop youth work competences based on the principles of intercultural democratic citizenship and human rights education.

Youth workers, trainers and youth leaders from Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Netherlands, Portugal, Spain and Turkey with youth work experience and capacity to act as direct multipliers in their communities and organisations are welcomed to apply for this course

Participants will be selected by the coordination team according to their Application form. Previous experience, youth work background and potential to develop concrete follow-up will be specially taken into account.
